Award-Winning Syracuse Home Care Agency

Care managers guide seniors through all aspects of long-term care

You might need the services of a care manager if you are...

- An adult child concerned about an older family member's care and financial management
- An older or disabled adult who wishes to maintain independence at home
- A company whose employees are losing work time due to caregiving responsibilities
- An attorney or trust officer who is managing the estate of an older adult
- A physician who recommends in-home assistance or monitoring
- Anyone interested in how to begin planning and arranging care for an older adult

Among the many services that always keep the best interests of seniors and the disabled at heart, care managers provide an experienced guide working towards continuity of care, help with family counseling and crisis intervention, referrals to safe financial and legal planning resources, and service coordination and monitoring.

Call At Home Independent Living today to learn more about the benefits of care management.
